

Crime: A case study

Do the media cause crime?

How many drama programmes on television are about crime and violence?

Do people enjoy stories about crime and violence in your view?

Talk to people around you and collect their opinions on whether the television should show so much crime and violence.

Should newspapers report on gruesome crimes such as murders and rapes? Give good reasons for your views.

Are children able to watch crime and violence on videotape easily? Do the rules and laws work?

Should we have stronger rules about showing crime and violence on television drama?

Do you like thrillers? Give reasons.

